ANNUAL REPORT OF DELHI COLLEGE OF VOCATIONAL STUDIES AND RESEARCH 2023-24

"Learning gives creativity; creativity leads to thinking; thinking provides knowledge; and knowledge makes you great." Yes, it is true, as proven by the placements of our students in various government and non-government firms. It is also proud to announce that since the establishment of this institute in 2008, we have received various government placements for our hardworking students.

The year 2023 commenced on a wonderful note when the results of our D El Ed 1st and 2nd year were announced. In both years, 10 students scored more than 80% and 27 students scored between 70% to 75%.

Throughout the year, we have also organized various co-curricular activities such as celebration of Independence Day, Hindi Diwas, Teacher's Day, Janmashtami, and many more cultural events with feeling of religious and national integration.

ACTIVITIES DURING THE SESSION

- Screening of "Nil Battey Sannata" was the first programme of the session 2023. Movie portraits a dream of mother for their children. The theme focused on a person's right to dream and change in lifestyle, irrespective of social status.
- ❖ Teacher's Day Celebration: On this day, students organized various cultural programs, speeches, and competitions to showcase their respect and love for their teachers. Teachers were presented with flowers, gifts, and handwritten cards as a token of appreciation. It was a memorable day for students and teachers, as it strengthens the bond between them and reminds everyone of the importance of education.
- ❖ The DISABILITY AWARENESS WEEK & FEST, themed "Normalizing Disability Inclusion," was held on 25th and 26th Sept 2023. The event kicked off with a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony and a discourse by a disability expert. There were screenings and judging of the best videos, photographs, and slogans, along with the launch of a Crash Course on Indian Sign Language. The second day started with the planting of a tree by the Chief Guest, followed by a networking break. The highlight of the day was a stand-up comedy performance by Sachin Porwal that spread laughter beyond barriers. The event ended on a high note, with participants gaining knowledge and enthusiasm.

❖ Learning is not limited within the four boundaries of a classroom. Keeping this in mind, we organized an educational trip to the National Science Centre and Art Museum, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. It was a great experience that helped develop observation and practical skills among the pupil teachers.

❖ The one-day National Conference on "The Power of Entrepreneurial Education" focused on the importance of integrating entrepreneurial education into the curriculum to prepare youth for future challenges. Esteemed dignitaries from various sectors shared insights on fostering innovation and economic growth through entrepreneurial education. Four technical sessions featuring presentations on 15 selected papers covered topics related to entrepreneurial education, innovation, and economic growth. The conference successfully brought together academia, industry experts, and policymakers, stimulating knowledge exchange and collaboration in nurturing an entrepreneurial spirit among the youth for socio-economic development.

❖ Delhi College of Vocational Studies and Research organized An Awareness Program on Gender-Based Violence in teacher education institutions. The program included a poster competition with 65 participants, a movie screening of "Thappad", and a workshop on gender sensitization. The poster competition showcased students' originality and creativity, with four winners selected for prizes. The movie screening raised awareness about gender-based violence through its powerful depiction of a woman's journey. The workshop on gender sensitization featured a special lecture by Dr. Charru Sharma, focusing on challenging stereotypes and promoting empathy. The program aimed to educate and empower pupil teachers to address gender-based violence and create a safe learning environment.

❖ On 13th October, we visited Surajgarh Farms in Gurgaon, India. The trip was organized by DCVS College, and it was a delightful and memorable experience. We were greeted with traditional dance and music and enjoyed a delicious breakfast of Rajasthani and Haryanvi cuisine. The farm offered various activities like archery, basketball, zip lining, and team activities. We also got to ride camels and carts. The entertainment included teddy bear and gorilla costumes, a puppet show, cultural dances, a magic show, astrology readings, and regional songs. It was a perfect blend of culture, excitement, and relaxation, and we cherished every moment.

❖ School Experience Programme was organized for D.El.Ed Ist and IInd year Trainees in the month of November 2023. The Objectives of the programme were to acquaint trainees with the work culture of a school ,classes and pedagogy of teaching. It was taken among the trainees as schools were closed. Trainees also prepared various school experience programme related documents i.e Peer Observation, Reflective daily diary, Lesson plan file ,Neighbourhood survey, Action research .School records, School profile, Textbook Analysis, Creative work and Achievement test report.

❖ The annual sports day at our institute was held on 30 December 2023 with great enthusiasm and excitement. The event started with a colorful march past by all the students, highlighting their house colors and representing their sportsmanship. Various track and field events were conducted, including sprints, long jump, high jump, and relay races. The students participated wholeheartedly, showcasing their skills and abilities. The air was filled with cheers and applause as the winners were announced. It was a day filled with team spirit, friendly competition, and a sense of achievement. The sports day concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, applauding the efforts and achievements of all the participants, making it a memorable and successful event.

❖ National Voters Day is celebrated in India on January 25th every year to promote voter awareness and participation in the electoral process. The day aims to educate citizens, especially the youth, about the importance of voting. Delhi College of Vocational Studies and Research organized various activities such as skits, quizzes, and PowerPoint presentations to spread awareness among students about the power and responsibility associated with voting. The skits portrayed the impact of voting on societal issues and personal rights, while the quiz tested students' knowledge of electoral processes. The event successfully conveyed the importance of voter participation and empowered students to make informed decisions in the future.

The Rang Tarang Art symposium, organized by SCERT Delhi, was a vibrant event that showcased the immense talent and creativity of students in the field of art. The symposium provided a platform for students from various schools to come together and exhibit their artistic skills through different mediums such as drawing, painting, and sculpture. The symposium also included interactive sessions and workshops conducted by renowned artists, providing valuable guidance and inspiration to the young participants. The event not only encouraged artistic expression but also promoted collaboration and learning among the students. Overall, the Rang Tarang Art symposium was a resounding success, fostering a love for art and nurturing young talent. It played a crucial role in promoting the importance of art education and creating a supportive community for young artists to flourish.

In conclusion, the session was highly productive and informative. We addressed the key issues at hand and engaged in fruitful discussions that allowed us to gain a deeper understanding of the topic. The participants actively contributed their valuable insights and experiences, fostering a collaborative and inclusive environment. We furthermore developed practical action plans and next steps to be taken, ensuring that our efforts continue beyond this session. Overall, the session was a success in achieving its objectives and establishing a solid foundation for further progress. We look forward to implementing the outcomes of this session and working towards our shared goals.
